

Store Assistant Milano 50% (f/d/m)

With a sewing machine in the kitchen and a bathtub laundry: FREITAG has been developing, producing and distributing bags and accessories made from used truck tarpaulins worldwide since 1993. We are guided by the circular economy and our manifesto: We think and act in cycles.

You, as part of our team, make sure our customer is happy. You will support the store manager in all activities and you also help with ordering and storing our products. Most importantly, thanks to you the FREITAG spirit is passed on to our customers.

Your Mission

- You are responsible for a customer-oriented store presentation in accordance with our visual merchandising guidelines
- You place orders and stock in the store under the direction of the Store Manager
- You conduct advisory and sales discussions in a service-oriented and efficient manner
- You independently solve various customer enquiries regarding repairs, vouchers, additional articles, etc.

Your Backpack

- You have already gained experience in sales and are a natural sales talent
- You speak fluent Italian and have a good command of English, any other language is an advantage
- You are interested in the fashion and lifestyle industry
- You work well in a team and enjoy contact with other people
- You enjoy the brand FREITAG

We Offer

- Day off on your birthday
- 14 months' salary
- Profit sharing
- Internal and external employee events
- F-Crew discount and annual WOWcher on all FREITAG products, as well as other benefits such as sport subscription participation, monthly lunch tickets, discounted massages, etc.

Your Application

Tell us something about yourself in your cover letter. Why do you think you fit in with us and why do you want to work at FREITAG? What is your hidden talent, what is your favourite food, or which bike do you ride?

FREITAG is an equal opportunities employer. Diversity, equality and inclusion are part of our culture. A reality that we always stand by and promote.

JETZT BEWERBEN